

Published on 1 December 2007 by Thomas Caveng, Legal Translator / Marketing Director

t.caveng@soulier-avocats.com

Tel.: + 33 (0)4 72 82 20 80

Read this post online

Comparative study of the legal provisions governing white collar crimes in the USA, Germany and France.

Following the establishment of a working group on the decriminalization of business and corporate law by French President Sarkozy and Minister of Justice Rachida Dati, the magazine Enjeux Les Echos published a comparative study of the legal provisions governing white collar crimes in the USA, Germany and France.

Prepared on the basis information and materials communicated by three law firms – including Soulier for France – this study provides some insights to fully understand the fundamentals of the reform. Click here to consult this study authored by Michel Derenbourg.

Soulier Avocats is an independent full-service law firm that offers key players in the economic, industrial and financial world comprehensive legal services.

We advise and defend our French and foreign clients on any and all legal and tax issues that may arise in connection with their day-to-day operations, specific transactions and strategic decisions.

Our clients, whatever their size, nationality and business sector, benefit from customized services that are tailored to their specific needs.

For more information, please visit us at www.soulier-avocats.com.

This material has been prepared for informational purposes only and is not intended to be, and should not be construed as, legal advice. The addressee is solely liable for any use of the information contained herein.