

Published on 1 July 2007 by Thomas Caveng, Legal Translator / Marketing Director

t.caveng@soulier-avocats.com

Tel.: + 33 (0)4 72 82 20 80

Read this post online

Judgment of the Labor Chamber of the Cour de Cassation (French Supreme Court) dated July 12, 2007

André Soulier is at the origin of an important judgment of the Labor Chamber of the Cour de Cassation (French Supreme Court) dated July 12, 2007. This judgment, rendered in connection with the dispute between Mr. Albert Cartier, football coach, and its former employer, the French football club F.C. Metz, constitutes an important judicial decision resulting in a significant evolution of applicable case law. Click here to consult a summary of the judgment.

Soulier Avocats is an independent full-service law firm that offers key players in the economic, industrial and financial world comprehensive legal services.

We advise and defend our French and foreign clients on any and all legal and tax issues that may arise in connection with their day-to-day operations, specific transactions and strategic decisions.

Our clients, whatever their size, nationality and business sector, benefit from customized services that are tailored to their specific needs.

For more information, please visit us at www.soulier-avocats.com.

This material has been prepared for informational purposes only and is not intended to be, and should not be construed as, legal advice. The addressee is solely liable for any use of the information contained herein.