Ms. Florence Grangerat has joined the firm as Counsel

We are pleased to announce that Ms. Florence Grangerat has joined the firm as Counsel.

Florence focuses her practice on corporate law, commercial law, mergers and acquisitions, private equity and international contracts. She assists a clientele comprising primarily international groups, French and foreign small and medium-sized companies, as well as entrepreneurs and business managers.

She also works with French start-ups, in particular in the biotech industry.

After nearly four years as local representative of Audier & Partners in Burma (Myanmar), she has developed an in-depth expertise in assisting foreign investors in their expansion projects.
