

Published on 1 July 2008 by Thomas Caveng, Legal Translator / Marketing Director

t.caveng@soulier-avocats.com

Tel.: + 33 (0)4 72 82 20 80

Read this post online

Towards a full dismissal of charges in the bee case

On June 15, 2008 the Saint-Gaudens Public Prosecutor filed his final conclusions calling for a full dismissal of BASF Agro, Bayer and their respective directors in the high profile criminal case concerning excess mortality among the bee population wrongly attributable to a seed coating product called Régent TS. The investigating judge should render his decision in the coming weeks. BASF Agro, current owner of the Régent TS, is assisted in this procedure by Jean-Luc Soulier.

Soulier Avocats is an independent full-service law firm that offers key players in the economic, industrial and financial world comprehensive legal services.

We advise and defend our French and foreign clients on any and all legal and tax issues that may arise in connection with their day-to-day operations, specific transactions and strategic decisions.

Our clients, whatever their size, nationality and business sector, benefit from customized services that are tailored to their specific needs.

For more information, please visit us at www.soulier-avocats.com.

This material has been prepared for informational purposes only and is not intended to be, and should not be construed as, legal advice. The addressee is solely liable for any use of the information contained herein.