AVOCATS

Florence focuses her practice on corporate law, commercial law, mergers and acquisitions, private equity and international contracts.

She assists a clientele comprising primarily international groups, small and medium-sized French companies, as well as entrepreneurs and business managers.

She also works with French start-ups, in particular in the biotech industry.

After nearly four years as local representative of Audier & Partners in Burma (Myanmar), she has developed an in-depth expertise in assisting foreign investors.

Selected Operation Summary

Assisted the managers of a leading French and European group specialized in non-automotive aluminum casting in acquiring a majority shareholding interest via a MBO

Advised a French biotech company in the context of a fundraising campaign through a crowdfunding platform and business angels

Assisted French companies in raising funds through the issuance of securities giving access to the share capital: obligations convertibles en actions avec bons de souscription d'actions (convertible bonds with share warrants or "OCABSA"), obligations convertibles en actions (convertible bonds or "OCA") and bons de souscription d'actions (share warrants or "BSA")

Assisted an investment fund in connection with the acquisition of a majority stake in a leading French group specialized in the distribution of equipment and consumables for tire fitting: legal due diligence of the companies included in the scope of the transaction, drafting of the sale purchase agreement, representations and warranties and other ancillary documents

Drafted and reviewed shareholders' agreements on behalf of French companies, investment funds and executive shareholders

Prepared and negotiated international hotel management and telecommunications contracts: construction and installation contracts and contracts for the operation and maintenance of telecommunications sites

Assisted a real estate developer in connection with the implementation of a residential real estate development project: creation of a civil construction-sale company and drafting of the shareholders' agreement between the investors
