

Fabien Pomart

PARTNER

MEMBER OF THE PARIS BAR

Fabien has over 17 years' experience in labor and employment law and advises and defends French and foreign groups on all labor and employment related issues.

He focuses his practice primarily on domestic and cross-border corporate reorganizations and restructuring transactions (downsizing, site closures, intra-group reorganizations, collective lay-off plans and redundancies, voluntary separation plans), the implementation of compensation and employee savings policies and international labor mobility, and he manages employment issues associated with corporate deals, including labor due diligence and the structuring of management packages.

He also advises businesses in their relationships with staff representative bodies in connection with information/consultation procedures and the implementation of collective bargaining agreements, and provides legal assistance on all issues related to safety, health and working conditions (unfitness for work, harassment, psycho-social risks, teleworking, implementation of ethical charters and codes of conduct).

In addition, he has a recognized practice advising and defending the interests of senior executives of large corporate groups.

Expertise

Selected Operation Summary
