

Claire Filliatre

COUNSEL

MEMBER OF THE LYON BAR

Soulier
AVOCATS

Claire focuses her practice on business law and contract law, both as advisor and litigator, as well as on white collar crime and press offences.

She assists French and foreign businesses operating in a wide range of industries primarily in preparing and negotiating all types of commercial and business contracts, general terms of sale and general terms of purchase, and securing their commercial and pricing policies and practices.

Claire defends the interests of our clients in complex prelitigation and litigation cases pertaining to various areas of business law (contractual liability, sudden breach of established business relationships, unfair competition, conflicts between shareholders, misappropriation of corporate assets, corruption, etc.).

She also provides representation in criminal proceedings relating to press offences.
